

Trying to Juggle It All?

Juggling all the things in your life can make you feel frazzled. ENDOW can help you put your life in order again by helping you to use the special talents that you have as a woman.

ENDOW provides women with a forum to explore and understand what it means to be a woman created in God's image.

ENDOW is for women from all walks of life—the mother, the doctor, the teacher—both single and married. In the past, secular feminism often divided and categorized women. ENDOW brings women together, to unite instead of divide, by focusing on the unique gifts given to all women.

If you're looking for deeper meaning and purpose in life—or just a place to discuss those important questions in life with women who are on a similar journey—plan to attend an upcoming ENDOW meeting.

You'll love the learning. You'll love the fellowship
